REMARKS

Applicant appreciates the courtesies shown him in numerous telephone conversations with Examiner Callahan regarding the present application. Also, Applicant thanks the Examiner for his careful and thorough examination in the Office Action of October 5th, 2005.

In the Office Action of October 5th, 2005, the Examiner rejected Claim 18 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting over Claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,307,956. Claims 19 and 20 were allowed. The Examiner indicated in the Office Action that a terminal disclaimer timely filed in compliance with 37 CFR §1.321(c) may overcome such rejection. Such terminal disclaimer is enclosed.

Also, new Claims 21 through 23 have been added, each of which depends from Claim 18. These Claims are being submitted to list the various positions within the pen-based computer where the sensor site is disposed. Entry of such new claims is respectfully requested.

Conclusion

It is respectfully submitted that Claims 18 through 23 are now in condition for allowance. If after reviewing this Amendatory Response, there are any remaining informalities which need to be resolved before the application can be passed to issue, the Examiner is respectfully requested to contact the undersigned by telephone in order to try to resolve any such informalities.
